YESTERDAY. - Yesterday was a delightful day, and the large number of persons on the streets and at the different places of worship showed plainly how it was enjoyed. In the Episcopal Churches the report of the committee on the condition of the diosese presented at the last council was read. At the M. E. Church South the morning services were devoted to Sunday School interests, the school occupying the galleries. The singing by the large concourse of children was a prominent portion of the service. A sermon specially adapted to the occasion was preached. The city was full of strangers - among them many

PROVISIONS RUNNING OFF. -- Some amusement to the bystanders was caused last week by the perplexed condition of a colored man carrying home a market basket for a citizen, who, among other articles, had purchased some live crabs. The crustaceans, clambering out of the basket, scampered away over the paving stones as fast as their clumsy lecomotive powers could carry them, the bearer of the basket meantime being alraid to take them up for meantime being alraid to take them up for by him of his celebrated wines, and can testify fear of their claws. He was relieved from his to the fact derived from a personal knowledge dilemma by the appearance of the owner of the crabs, who replaced them in the basket and covered them over to prevent another e-cape.

CLOSE OF THE FESTIVAL. - The festival held nightly throughout the last week at the As sembly Rooms for the benefit of the M. E. Church, South, closed on Saturday night with an auction sale the of goods remaining on hand. The festival was quite a success and the managers express their thanks to the public for their liberal patronage. A very considerable sum has been realized, and many have been afforded the opportunity of enjoying them selves, an opportunity which, judging by the pleasant looks of those frequenting the room large stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's BOOTS and SHOES, and in order light after night, was availed of advantage

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Want of Vitality.

Sometimes there is a lack of vitality in large and apparently well developed frames. Herculean sinews and muscles are not always indicative of stamina and constitutional vigor in their hossessor. Health depends more upon the condition of the stomach, the liver and the bowels, than upon the breadth of the shoulders, or the size of loose levers and pulleys of the system in which strength is supposed to reside. All this grand animal machinery is of itself no protective grand animal machinery is of itself no protective against sickness and decay. Easy and perfect digestion, regular and healthy secretions, un-contaminated blood, and a regular discharge of the waste matter of the body through the intestines, the kidneys and the pores, are the most potent safeguards against disease, and the best guarantees of longevity. To promote these objects is the great end and purpose of Hostetter's Stomach bitters. The ingredients of which the Great Tonic and Alterative is composed are taken solely from the vegetable kingdom, and their medicinal virtues are not counterbalanced by the acid and poisonous elements which exist, more or less, in all the powerful mineral drugs. Sufferers from indigestion, biliousness, intermittent fevers, nervous debility or constipation, not only find immediate relief from the use of this agreeable stimulant and invigorant, but become conscious, as time wears on, of an increase of constitutional elasticity and vital force. Labor and exposure no longer produce the same effect upon them as heretofore, and they teel as if they had acquired a new hold on life, a now reserve of physical and mental energy. This has been the experience of thousands of both sexes and every day adds to the mass of confirmatory testimony. At this season of the year, when the temperature and state of the atmosphere exercise a peculiarly depressing in-fluence over the minds and bodies of invalids, Hostetter's Bitters is the only tonic upon which the debilitated can rely for swift and permanent re toration.

The Port Grape in New Jersey. The following cannot fail to satisfy any scaptical persons about Speer's wine being purely a grape juice wine: Passaic, October 23, 1865 This is to certify that I have been a resident of Passaic for the past twelve years, during which time I have known Mr. Alfred Speer. and been thoroughly posted in the manufacture that his excellent Port G. pe Wine is made entirely from the Oporto Grane, which he extensively cultivates in vineya ds in sight of my residence. The Port Grape vine is a variety of his own raising, cultivated exclusively by himself, and is a superior grape. C. M. K. PAULISON, U. S. Deputy Collector Int. Rev. Our druggists have some of this wine, direct from Mr. Speer.

St. Louis, June 13.- Representatives of the Cherokce, Creek, Seminole and Osage In dians inhabiting the Indian Territory, assembled at Okumulgee on the 4th of June to consider Territorial bills railroad and other schemes, affecting the welfare of the Indians. An address to the President, Congress and the people of the United States was adopted, in which they earnestly affirm their determina tion to preserve the relations of amity to the Government, and place themselves squarely upon their treaties. They opnose ferritorial Government, surveys and the allotment of their land, and the donation of lands to railroads; not because they are enemies of improvement but because they see in them the loss of that homes and independence, il not extinction itself. They say that if in the lapse of time the in crease of the white population and the march of events have removed us from the wilderness which wewere plunged in unwillingly, and placed us in the way of our neighbors, the fania is not ours; nor do they invalidate any existing obligation. We ask nothing from the people and as thorities, aside from respect and good I flowship but what they have promised; an elservance of our treaties despite all viers studes of our history and the terrible ordeal of war, by which we have been scourged with fire and sword, through no fault of ours, but weakness and mability to sustain ourselves.
